Una Sera Latina!

ArtsNaples World Festival Gala Opening Celebration will give a taste of what's to come.

Over 150 distinguished guests are expected to attend “Una Sera Latina!”, the ArtsNaples World Festival Gala Opening Celebration, on Friday, May 10 at the Naples Yacht Club.

Honorary Gala Chairs, Mayor John F. and Mrs. Delores Sorey and Gala Committee Chairs, John and Judy Hushon, will kick off the affair with a 6:30 p.m. cocktail reception hosted on the Yacht Club’s extraordinary terrace overlooking the north end of Naples Bay. The reception will feature select fine wines – including Argentine Malbec, unoaked Chilean Chardonnay, and Argentine Sparkling Wine from the Mendoza region - and signature South American cocktails. Guests will enjoy a unique Latin chamber group performance throughout the cocktail reception.

Dinner will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. in the Yacht Club’s main dining room. The menu will feature Latin fusion cuisine, prepared by Naples Yacht Club Chef Ralph C. Feraco, CEC, AAC, with selections including ceviche, Chilean sea bass, Brazilian-style roasted pork, and more. ArtsNaples World Festival Artistic Director Maestro William Noll will present a preview of festival performances throughout the dinner, including a professional tango demonstration and a Latin Jazz piano performance. Contributing to the overall Latin theme, a collection of 25 pieces of Hispanic folk art from the 18th century will be on throughout the evening.

Dress for “Una Sera Latina!”, the ArtsNaples World Festival Gala Opening Celebration, is black tie or Guayabera shirt.

SALUDOS!

to Our Friends from Throughout the World

Thank you for accepting our invitation in order for you to experience a continuing new cultural tradition in Naples, a most vibrant and beautiful region of southwest Florida. Together, we celebrate the exciting and rich cultural heritage of the Latin Americas, for the second annual ArtsNaples World Festival, May 10 – 14, 2013.

During the Festival you will experience an immersion in art, orchestral concerts, chamber music, virtuoso piano recitals, jazz, vocal music, cuisine, nature's beauty, cinema, and dance! Combined with the incredible scenic wonder of the Gulf Coast beaches, you may savor an unforgettable journey through distinctively Hispanic cultures.

This sharing of the Hispanic experience is the continuation of an annual tradition to celebrate unique cultures throughout the world.

And, continuing our worldly tradition, make plans now to return in 2014 as ArtsNaples World Festival celebrates the sounds, sights and tastes of all things Italian. ArtsNaples will begin a major Italian Festival the weekend of May 2nd, 2014. Experience grand opera, theatre, chamber music, symphonic works, cuisine, jazz, fashion, and more!

In the meantime, let us be engaged by the inspired cultures of the Latin Americas.

Come in May! Stay in May!™
We'll bring the world to you.
Muchas Gracias!

Music to Art – and Everything In Between!

Priscila Navarro

Priscila Navarro, Piano
Friday, May 10 | 2:00 p.m.

Fresh off her Carnegie Hall debut performance, 19-year-old piano sensation, Priscila Navarro, promises to thrill the audience with her impressive lyrical talent. Navarro is originally from Lima, Peru and currently studies at Florida Gulf Coast University's Bower School of Music under full scholarship. Navarro performs all over the world including recent performances in South America, Italy, and Poland.

Antonio Madruga

Antonio Madruga, Piano
Saturday, May 11 | 2:00 p.m.

Eighteen year-old Cuban-American pianist and prodigy of Maestro William Noll, Antonio Madruga promises to light up the stage with his distinct ability - and affinity - for jazz. A true piano virtuoso with a musical maturity beyond his years, Madruga began playing when he was just three years old, and by the time he was ten he was performing in Italy. He has been featured in an HBO documentary, has played numerous festivals, and has performed at the White House.

Rene Gonzalez, Guitar
Sunday, May 12 | 2:00 p.m.

Rene Gonzalez, one of the finest classical guitarists in America, will showcase his extensive musical range and feature his incredible version of El Colibri, The Hummingbird at this much anticipated performance. A protégé of world renowned classical guitarist, Juan Mercadal, Gonzalez now heads the University of Miami's Classical Guitar Program. Gonzalez has performed with many established musical artists including Victoria de los Angeles and recently co-starred in the film production of Fernando & Me, based upon the life and music of Fernando Sor.

Ignacio “Nachito” Herrera, Piano
Monday, May 13 | 2:00 p.m.

Last November - in a performance that served as a prelude to the ArtsNaples World Festival - Nachito Herrera had the crowd on its feet during an appearance with the Cuban National Orchestra at The Phil. With A background that includes performing Rachmaninoff’s Concerto No. 2, with the Havana Symphony Orchestra at age 12 and touring as a member of the Afro Cuban All Stars in 2009, it’s no surprise that Herrera has been touted as one of the world’s greatest Cuban pianists. Herrera’s vast repertoire includes classical as well as traditional Cuban rhythms.

Canciones and Zarzuelas performed by Sandra Lopez and Paul Posnak
Tuesday, May 14 | 2:00 p.m.

Soprano powerhouse, Sandra Lopez, and celebrated pianist, Paul Posnak, join forces to present a magical afternoon of the music of Ernesto Lecuona! These beautifully melodic scenes of life, incorporate operatic and popular song, as well as dance. Lopez has captivated audiences around the world with her critically-acclaimed operatic performances with major companies. Posnak is a recognized soloist pianist and much sought after collaborator who has worked with artists including Luciano Pavarotti.

“La Casa: Latin American Art”

“La Casa: Latin American Art” will be the Naples Art Association’s second annual collaboration with ArtsNaples World Festival. From April 27 through June 1, artwork by local Latin American artists will be on view at the von Liebig Art Center. Featured artists include three Face Award alumni (JAMA: 2011, Lucy Correa Ryback: 2012, and Juan Diaz: 2013) and pieces from the Naples Museum of Art collection.

FESTIVAL GRAND FINALE

Featuring Famed Trumpet Virtuoso Arturo Sandoval

Tuesday, May 14 | 8:00 p.m.

Arturo Sandoval

Nine-time Grammy Award winning trumpeter and Dizzy Gillespie protégé, Arturo Sandoval, joins forces with legendary Brazilian jazz guitar player, Romero Lubambo, to present a vivacious live concert that's sure to bring down the house!

The Philharmonic Jazz Orchestra featuring Romero Lubambo will open the concert. Lubambo and his band unite the flavorful style of Brazilian music with the American jazz tradition. He has recorded with many famous musical artists including Yo-Yo Ma, Paquito D'Rivera, and Harry Belafonte.

Rounding out the evening is Arturo Sandoval, notably one of the world's most dynamic and powerful live performers of our time. He is a master and guardian of the jazz trumpet and flugel horn, and a legendary classical artist, pianist, and composer. Sandoval has collaborated with some of the most famous musicians of yesterday and today, including performing with Celine Dion at the Oscars and Justin Timberlake at the Grammy Awards.

FLORIDA COMMUNITY BANK CELEBRATES THE ARTS WITH “SABOR”

“Sabor” means “taste” or “flavor” in Spanish. It also describes the innovation, creativity and passion found in artistic expression throughout Latin America, from music and dance to painting, sculpture, literature, and more. Infused with European, Native American and African traditions, the arts of Latin America combine diverse cultural elements that connect communities to their own unique history.

Florida Community Bank is proud to be a title sponsor of the ArtsNaples World Festival, which this year celebrates the innovation, creativity and passion—the “sabor” of the art and culture of Latin America that has become an integral part of the diverse Florida communities we serve, and where we also live and work.

Bringing Latin Jazz Classics to Life!

Antonio Madruga Trio

Sunday, May 12 9:00 p.m.

Monday, May 13 9:00 p.m.

Tuesday, May 14 9:00 p.m.

Performing jazz, classics, and original arrangements in addition to Cuban standards, the Antonio Madruga Trio is a smooth Latin jazz group led by 18-year old Cuban-American pianist and prodigy of Maestro William Noll, Antonio Madruga. The performance will feature rhythmically vibrant sounds in the tradition of Madruga's diverse musical influences, which include jazz greats Oscar Peterson, Paquito D'Rivera, and Dizzy Gillespie; classical artists Liszt, Chopin, Bach, and Brahms, and Cuban classical pianists Jorge Luis Prats, and Ernesto Lecuona, to name a few.

Madruga is a graduate of the New World School of the Arts, Miami, and has performed with both the Monk All-Star Sextet and the Jazz Ensemble in New York City. He was awarded the Ella Fitzgerald Award for outstanding soloist at the 2011 "Essentially Ellington" competition at Lincoln Center, was selected as a member of the Grammy Awards Jazz Ensemble, and performed with Grammy-Award winner Esperanza Spalding, during Grammy Week 2012. In 2010, at the invitation of First Lady Michelle Obama, he performed at the White House. He has also appeared as a soloist, or with his trio, at the Panama Jazz Festival, Carnegie Hall, Princeton University, The Kennedy Center, and more. Rounding out the talented trio is Scott Smith on bass and James Martin on drums. The Antonio Madruga Trio promises an entertaining evening that the audience won't soon forget.

Dear Friends,

The inaugural 2012 ArtsNaples World Festival celebrated all things Russian and was a resounding success. It delivered memorable performances, bold programming, educational outreach, and touched the lives of over eleven thousand people. The 2013 Festival builds on this innovative foundation and celebrates the rich heritage of the Latin Americas' and Hispanic cultures.

During the Festival, you will experience an exhilarating array of performances, expanded cultural partnerships, and exceptional special events. ArtsNaples showcases the amazing variety of cultural organizations in Southwest Florida and brings international talent directly to the stages, galleries, and film screens of Naples and the surrounding region.

I wish to thank everyone in our young ArtsNaples World Festival family—supporters, donors, volunteers, patrons, students, educators, sponsors, and all cultural arts lovers. Your commitment to the future of this remarkable Festival inspires us to grow beyond what we previously dreamed possible.

More excitement is yet to come as ArtsNaples World Festival engages the cultures of Italy in 2014 and France in 2015!

Bringing the World to the Youth of Southwest Florida!

Artistic Director William Noll and Education Board Chair Merlin Lickhalter plan to actively engage Southwest Florida's young residents in the art, culture, and excitement of the 2013 ArtsNaples World Festival. Students aged four to twenty years old are invited to special events – just for them – that are scheduled throughout the festival, as facilitated by Judy Evans, Director of Education.

Performance Preview

Prior to each of the two ArtsNaples World Festival concerts at The Philharmonic Center for the Arts, a group of Collier County teachers will have the opportunity to attend seminars on the music and artists featured in the Festival. ArtsNaples thanks Judy Evans and Linda Cummings for their extraordinary contributions to the Festival's current and future arts education programs for students of all ages.

Little Maestros Program

The ArtsNaples World Festival will partner with Fun Time Early Childhood Academy to present a weeklong program that will feature festival musicians educating Naples' littlest music aficionados.

Culture Meets Class

The ArtsNaples World Festival will host a special Argentine Tango exhibition and set of lectures geared toward Collier County high school students with musicians and dancers. Tango legend, Pablo Repun, will lead the interactive sessions that include special activities in the Brazilian Garden at the Naples Botanical Garden. Students will be immersed in the history, culture, music, and dance of Argentina!

NIFF is proud to be a part of ArtsNaples World Festival and celebrate Latin American Cinema.

From a quiet character study to a gritty crime drama to a spectacular fantasy tale, each film in our series showcases a unique style and a truly original voice. Stay for an informal discussion after each screening.

For tickets, and to learn more about the films, please visit www.naplesfilmfest.com.
